Headline:
Turning cold again with sharp overnight frosts and wintry showers.

Today:
After a frosty start to the day long spells of sunshine are expected this morning. A little more cloud this afternoon may allow isolated showers to develop which could turn wintry over the hills. Light winds inland. Feeling cold. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Long clear spells inland with light winds and another sharp frost. More cloud and breeze near the coast with the odd shower, possibly wintry at times. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Saturday:
Another cold day on Saturday with some brighter spells and also further wintry showers in places. Light winds inland but more breeze near the coast. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Cold on Sunday, with further wintry showers and overnight frost. Turning milder Monday, with a strengthening breeze and spells of rain. Early rain on Tuesday clearing leaving a dry afternoon.
